BOMBAY COUR

EXTRAORDINAR

MONDAY, 15TH DECEMBER 1823.

WE have this moment received two Madras Extra papers of the 3d of December, giving the following important intelligence, which serves to confirm the news brought by the Glenelg from Allepie.

The Frederick the First from England the 14th August, passed Allepie on the 23d ultimo, and sent on shore the following news.

The disturbances in Ireland are still carried to serious lengths.

His Majesty was at Brighton quite recovered from his last attack of the gout.

Lady Conyngham was seriously indisposed, and not expected to survive many days.

We are happy to announce, that the French were retreating from Madrid, and had been defeated in a general action. Sir R. Wilson and the Baron D'Olympas mortally wounded.

Lord Byron was successfully seconding the Greek cause—their ultimate triumph was quite insured.

Mr. Secretary Canning was seriously indisposed at Gloster Lodge.

Important arrangements and dispatches are on board about the Indian Army.

The Harvest had been most abundant.

PASSENGERS PER FREDERICK the FIRST.—Mrs. Baxe, D. Baxe, Esq. Colonel Room and Family; Captain and Mrs. Fitzgibbon; Lieutenants Smith, Blake, & Whitey: Assistant Surgeons Harris, Broome, and Furlong, M. D.; Gentlemen Cadets, Nixon, White, Brown and Howison; Volunteers for the Bombay Marine. Boldrow, Sinkharde, and Whitebread.

The Editor of the Madras Gazette adds the following remarks.

" The rumours of the demise of His Majesty King George IV. seem to have originated wholly in THE NAME of the Vessel which put us in possession of the above Intelligence.—We are most happy to hear the report this day of His Majesty's enjoyment of perfect health when the " Frederick the First" left England—the Duke of Wellington was also mentioned as the Successor to the present Royal Commander-in-Chief—but we can trace this rumour to no authentic source.

Mr. Secretary Canning and the Marchioness Conyngham are both reported to be most seriously indisposed—indeed the current rumour is that the former died prior to the sailing of the " Frederick the First."

It is strange that the destination of the Frederick the First is not mentioned. We are inclined to think, from the names of some of the Passengers, that she must be bound to Bombay.

FIRST
BOMBAY TONTINE
FOR THE BENEFIT OF SURVIVORS.

IN consequence of the unproductive state of the public Securities, and the very limited means afforded to individuals of investing money to advantage in this Country, the present is considered a favorable opportunity for establishing a TONTINE at this Presidency, under the designation of the "FIRST BOMBAY TONTINE."

The general principles of TONTINES are now so well known, and they have already stood the test of experience so well in this Country, that it would be superfluous to recur to them. It is only necessary to mention that the Regulations of this Institution, although differing in some minor points, are framed upon the experience afforded by existing TONTINES established on the other side of India; and where any alterations have been made, it is hoped they will be attended with benefit to the Institution.

From having observed in other TONTINES the reluctance, on the part of new Subscribers, to pay up heavy arrears and the consequent falling off in the number of Subscribers towards the conclusion of the TONTINE, it is determined in this Institution to close the Subscription list at the end of the first year, after which no new Subscribers can be admitted into the FIRST BOMBAY TONTINE; should sufficient encouragement, however, be held out during the first year, it is proposed to open a new TONTINE upon similar principles, at the commencement of 1825.

The funds and all transactions connected with this TONTINE are to be under the controul and superintendence of Directors residing in Bombay, as a Committee of management, in which situation the following Gentlemen have consented to give their assistance, viz.—John Stewart, John Leckie, William Shotton, Richard Woodhouse, Esquires, and Sir Roger de Faria, and with their approbation the following Regulations are now published for general information.

Regulations of the FIRST Bombay TONTINE for the benefit of Survivors, to be established on the 1st January 1824, and to continue for the period of Five years.

1st. That the number of shares in this Society be unlimited; and each Subscriber be allowed to hold any number of Shares, half Shares, or quarter Shares on the life or lives of such person or person as he may think proper; and that all applications for admission be made to the Secretary in writing, according to the annexed form.

2nd. That the amount of a whole share be fixed at One Thousand Bombay Rupees, to be collected by twenty quarterly instalments of Fifty Rupees each.

3d. That the 1st day of January, 1st of April, 1st of July and 1st of October in each year, be considered as the days on which the quarterly instalments are to be paid.

4th. That all Subscribers on or before the 31st January 1824 shall pay for the first quarterly subscription, for every whole share Fifty Rupees, for every half share Twenty five Rupees, and for every quarter share Twelve and a half Rupees; and that the same rate of subscription be continued on the first of every quarter during the continuance of the TONTINE.

5th. BRUCE SETON,

To
The Editor of the Bombay Courier.
SIR,

Roland in his last letter has bolted from the Race Course and turned Critic. When I first gave my opinion upon the subject of the Baroda Races I expected an answer (if any was given) on that subject, not a critique on the words by which my meaning was conveyed, being thoroughly aware of my own incapability of writing in a manner to avoid just criticism; but I believe I may make myself easy as it has been my fortune to come under the lash of one who does not know that there is a difference between a plain statement and an insinuation or who can pride himself on its being admitted that an observation he made was a trite one, if ever he knew the meaning of the word trite it must have slipped his memory and I would advise him if he has such a book as Ainsworth's Latin Dictionary in his library to look out the word on the English side after which he will probably not plume himself on his trite observations in future.

It would be useless to give any answer to what little he says on the subject of Racing as it would be mere repetition; but upon the subject of the galled jade wincing (trite again though not true) I can assure Roland that Oliver never had nor thought of having a Race Horse, so he need not fear galling his too sensitive feelings on that subject. But before he attacks others let Roland look at home. Is he not too bashful in disclaiming the originality of the idea that the increased subscription would only be unpleasant to those whose liberality was determined by their having a horse to run or not? As the original idea first emanated from him he has a right to consider it his own, and I trust no one will dispute the honour with him.

Your Obedient Servant.
OLIVER.

Pardon us, great Sir, in your royal protection against any who labour to misrepresent us, and who rather use their endeavours to create misunderstandings than to engage the hearts of subjects, to that loyalty and cheerful obedience which we owe, and are happy to testify towards your Majesty. Under so excellent a King we are persuaded that we, and all your other peaceable and faithful subjects, shall enjoy their just rights and liberties, and that our enemies shall not be able to hurt us, with your Majesty, for whose royal favour we presume humbly to hope, as our forefathers were honoured with that of your Majesty's ancestors. Our mountains, though undervalued by some, are nevertheless acknowledged to have at all times been fruitful in providing hardy and gallant men, and such, we hope, shall never be wanting amongst us, who shall be ready to undergo all dangers in defence of your Majesty, and your royal posterity's only rightful title to the Crown of Great Britain. GENERAL ORDERS.

BOMBAY CASTLE, 12th December 1823.

By the Hon'ble the Governor in Council.

THE temporary appointment of Lieutenant Rebenack to the charge of the Bazar duties at Baroda, as announced in General Order of the 17th June last, is cancelled, and those duties will accordingly revert to the immediate charge of the Commissariat.

Bombay Castle, 13th Dec. 1823.

The Governor in Council is pleased to separate, until further orders, the duties of the Engineer Officer in Candeish, from those of the Executive Officer in the Surat Division of the Army, and to appoint Ensign MacGillivray to the duties in Candeish.

Bombay Castle, 15th Dec. 1823.

Gunner J. H. Stocqueler of the Regiment of Artillery is allowed his discharge from the Army, on providing two substitutes, and the Hon'ble the Governor in Council is pleased to permit him to remain in India, subject to the Hon'ble Court's confirmation or otherwise.

Bombay Castle, 16th Dec. 1823.

In consequence of the death of Lieutenant J D. Saltwell on the 9th instant, the following promotion is made by the Honorable the Governor in Council.

1st or Grenadier Regt. N. I.

Ensign John Kerr Gloag to be Lieutenant vice Saltwell deceased,—Date of rank 10th Dec. 1823.

Bombay Castle, 16th Dec. 1823

As it is expedient that some rule should be laid down for the dimensions of Dooly sheds, at such stations as may be unprovided with sufficient shelter for them, the following will be allowed for covering 8 Doolies, 2 placed lengthways and 4 deep; and so on for a larger proportion. The Doolies to be closed up, the poles overlapping each other.

Length of Shed.... .... 26 feet.
Breadth.... ditto.................. 12 feet

The roof may project from a wall of 9½ or 10 feet high, to wooden uprights of 5 feet, and a Store Commissariat Officer, in making application for Dooly sheds, will be expected to avail himself of any walls or buildings in his department, from which a roof may be thrown with advantage. In estimating for the roofs of these sheds, it is not intended to make them sufficiently strong to bear a row of Doolies suspended to them, as is sometimes the practice.

By Order of the Hon'ble
the Governor in Council,
W. NEWNHAM,
Chief Sec. to Govt,

THE COURIER.

BOMBAY,

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 20TH, 1823.

We are still without any arrival from England, since the Columbia. The sea-voyage of the Frederick the first, now appears to have begun and ended with her visit at Allepee; and we fear she is no where to be found but in the pages of the numerous extra papers now travelling in all directions, to announce her arrival to the news-loving sojourners in the interior. Our Madras Cotemporaries have much to answer for, in thus passing their jokes upon us, at a time when we are looking out so anxiously for news from home, and we ought to be very angry with them; but as they have afforded us a week's amusement and conversation about this far famed Frederick the first, at a time when we had little else to talk about, we must e'en forgive them.

On Monday evening the Hon'ble Mr. Adam left the Presidency, under the usual salute, on his way to Bengal over-land. The Hon'ble the Governor accompanied him as far as Kandallah. We are happy to be able to state that Mr. Adam's health has been much improved by his visit to this place.

The Boa Fortuna, Capt. Johnson, from Penang the 6th November, anchored in the harbour early yesterday, morning. She has been twenty two days on the coast, contending against the strong northerly winds, and has met with no Ship coming this way. Three Ships were seen standing to the Southward.

Since we received the Circular, announcing the revival of the Calcutta Journal, which is inserted in another column, we have observed the following notice respecting it in the Bengal Hurkaru of the 2d December.

NOTICE.

The Public are respectfully informed that in consequence of a Letter from the Chief Secretary to Government, received by the Printer at a late hour yesterday evening, by which it appears that some misconception exists as to the designation of the Paper intended to be published from the Columbian Press, the issue of the same is therefore deferred until this misapprehension is removed.

Calcutta Journal Office,
Monday Morning, Dec. 1, 1823.

In the absence of any recent meeting of the Highland Society of Bombay, even on St. Andrew's day, we have substituted an account of a meeting of a similar association at Liverpool, held on the 18th June. The speech of Mr. Abercomby on that occasion cannot fail to be read with pleasure by every lover of Scotland.

The following paragraph is taken from the Madras Courier of the 5th December.

"His Majesty's Ship Liffey, Commodore Charles Grant, C. B. from Calcutta the 28th Nov. anchored in the roads on Wednesday, and sailed again the same evening for Bombay via Trincomalie. During the stay of the Liffey at the New Anchorage, a fever broke out on Board, which we regret to say, caused the death of two Midshipmen, and several of the Crew; she was however perfectly healthy on her arrival here.—His Majesty's Sloop Satellite, arrived at the Sand Heads, from Penang, the day before the Liffey sailed."

We understand that the Asia will not go out of Dock before the 18th of next month

The England, Captain Reay, will sail for London, we are informed, about Tuesday next.
